OUR CATHOLIC FAITH

He is risen! He is risen indeed! Our God of life has overcome death! Because of this day we know for certain that death is life, so it might seem a strange time to talk about hell! However, today is still the Triduum—the three days that liturgically are only one day unfolding for us the Passion, death and resurrection of Christ. From the evening of Holy Thursday until the evening of Easter Sunday we are in a single celebration. Obviously that includes Holy Saturday.

Holy Saturday tends to get overlooked sandwiched between the horror of Friday and the glory of Sunday. But from the very early Church, probably before the year 200 A.D., an unknown homilist reflected on that day when Jesus went into hell after his death. Jesus goes to seek out Adam! The writing is called the Ancient Homily and is included in the Office of Readings. This is a portion of the homily, you can Google or YouTube the rest.

The Lord descends into hell

Something strange is happening—there is a great silence on earth today, a great silence and stillness. The whole earth keeps silence because the King is asleep. The earth trembled and is still because God has fallen asleep in the flesh and he has raised up all who have slept ever since the world began. God has died in the flesh and hell trembles with fear. He has gone to search for our first parent, as for a lost sheep. Greatly desiring to visit those who live in darkness and in the shadow of death, he has gone to free from sorrow the captives Adam and Eve, he who is both God and the son of Eve.

The Lord approached them bearing the cross, the weapon that had won him the victory. At the sight of him, Adam, the first man he had created, struck his breast in terror and cried out to everyone: “My Lord be with you all.” Christ answered him: “And with your spirit.” He took him by the hand and raised him up, saying: “Awake, O sleeper, and rise from the dead, and Christ will give you light.” I am your God, who for your sake have become your son. Out of love for you and for your descendants I now by my own authority command all who are held in bondage to come forth, all who are in darkness to be enlightened, all who are sleeping to arise. I order you, O sleeper, to awake. I did not create you to be held a prisoner in hell. Rise from the dead, for I am the life of the dead. Rise up, work of my hands, you who were created in my image. Rise, let us leave this place, for you are in me and I am in you; together we form only one person and we cannot be separated.

April 17, 2022

Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Our Gospel today tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection.

Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. This is notable because in first-century Jewish society women could not serve as legal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe an appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead.

Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen (it is understood that grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body).

The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit. — Loyola Press

HAPPY EASTER - to all of you from Father John and the staff at St. Anne and St. Elizabeth Parishes.

OFFICES CLOSED - Parish offices will be closed on Easter Monday, April 18.

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS COLLECTION, APR. 24
Next weekend you are invited to support the mission parishes and centers in the United States. Envelopes are attached to this weeks bulletin.

WELCOME! - If you are visiting our church and would like to become a part of our parish family, please contact the parish office; 765-529-0933.

QUILT RAFFLE - On Sunday, May 1, we will have a raffle for a beautiful table runner, napkins and coasters. The items are displayed in the narthex. Tickets are $1 each. Fill out the ticket(s) and return the tickets and money through the collection box.

Proceeds will go to the quilt fund that benefits charity. Donuts and coffee will also be served at the raffle in St. Rose Hall.

MASS INTENTIONS - We are currently accepting Mass intentions for 2022. We especially need intentions for weekday Masses. The Church considers the Mass as the greatest form of prayer intercession.

You may have a Mass said for the living or the dead. If you would like to have a Mass offered, there are envelopes for this at the entrances of church. The suggested stipend is $10.00.

GOD'S GRAIN BIN - God's Grain Bin collects any non-perishable food items. They are thankful for anything that is donated. Recently they have especially asked for tuna. If you are able to assist them in their efforts, it would be greatly appreciated.

HELP US GROW - Consider scheduling a recurring electronic contribution today. It's easy! You can elect when to schedule your contributions. This can be done for the regular collection or Capital Improvements.

Please contact the parish office or visit our website, <http://saintannenc.us> for an enrollment form. Return it to the parish office or you may put it in an envelope and drop it in the collection basket.
