Matthew continues the Sermon on the Mount with a three part instruction by Jesus on the Way of Life in the kingdom of heaven. Today's reading is part one and deals with the Law. Part two deals with worship and religious practice and contains the Lord's Prayer. Part three deals with trusting God and deeds of loving service to our neighbor.

When Matthew speaks of "the Law and the prophets" he means the whole Scripture. When the Messiah brings the fullness of the kingdom none of scripture will be done away with. Instead it will be fulfilled. Matthew's Jesus does not overturn the Law of Moses, nor does he set his followers free from the Law. He requires his followers to go beyond the Law by doing more than the Law requires.

The Law condemned murder. Jesus condemns anger. The Law condemned adultery. Jesus condemns even lustful looks. As Jewish Christians who had always been faithful to the Law Matthew's community need a way to understand the difference Jesus and the kingdom he brings have made. They affirmed that God had always been at work in history through "the Law and the prophets." But God's work goes beyond that to be embodied by the Messiah who reveals the definitive will of God. The written scriptures and their interpretation in tradition are surpassed by Jesus whose life and teaching are the definitive revelation of the will of God.— Loyola Press

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION - Saturday, Feb. 18, at St. Elizabeth from 6:00 - 6:30 p.m., Sunday, February 19, at St. Anne from 11:00 - 11:30 a.m. During this time of Adoration please leave the church quietly to show respect for the Lord Jesus presence in the Eucharist, and respect for people in prayer. Thank you, Father John

COLLECTION FOR THE CHURCH IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE - February 18 and 19, the funds collected helps the Churches in Central and Eastern Europe to proclaim the Gospel.

FEBRUARY: CATHOLIC PRESS MONTH - The Criterion is the Catholic news paper of the Archdiocese. Through the Criterion, news about the Archdiocese is shared with us, as well as, news and information about the universal church and churches in the United States. I invite all of us to support our parishes of St. Anne and St. Elizabeth as we provide each Catholic household the Criterion.

There are envelopes in your boxes or you may use an envelope from the pews. Please mark "CRITERION" on the envelope. Suggested donation is $20. Thank you for your assistance.

REST IN PEACE - We remember all who have died, that they may rest in peace, and all who mourn and remember them be comforted. We especially remember from St. Anne, Dale Weintraut, Charles Pierce and Catherine Keesling, mother-in-law of Patti Keesling.
