Today's reading from the Gospel of John is part of Jesus' discourse at the Last Supper. Recall that John tells the story of Jesus' Last Supper differently from the other Evangelists. In John's Gospel, the Last Supper begins with Jesus washing his disciples' feet. Jesus then provides them with a series of instructions. We call this section the Last Supper discourse or Jesus' farewell discourse. In these chapters of John's Gospel, Jesus instructs his disciples about the importance of following his example of love and service, about the gift they will receive when Jesus sends them the Holy Spirit, and about their relationship with Jesus and with the world. The Last Supper discourse concludes with Jesus' prayer for his disciples.

Today's Gospel reading is taken from middle of the Last Supper discourse. Jesus speaks about his relationship to his disciples. In his metaphor of the vine and the branches, Jesus is referencing the Hebrew Scriptures. In the Hebrew Scriptures, Israel is the vineyard, and Yahweh himself tends the vineyard. One of the primary themes of John's Gospel is to show Jesus to be the fulfillment of God's promises to Israel.

In this passage, Jesus teaches his disciples that his relationship with them will not end after his death; he will remain with them always. This unity between Jesus and his disciples is the basis for their ability to continue to do the work that he began. Similarly, Jesus' presence with us through the Gift of the Holy Spirit enables us to continue the work of love and reconciliation that he began.

Jesus also teaches his disciples about the importance of the words he has taught to them. Just as Jesus will remain in the disciples, so too will his words. We come to know Jesus through the Scriptures, the living Word of God. Our commitment to be Christ's disciples is sustained through God's Word. This commitment is also strengthened by our life of prayer and nourished by the Eucharist. Through the Eucharist, Jesus dwells in us, remains with us, and transforms us so that we might bear fruit in his name.

We observe many people who act in ways that show their commitment to serve their neighbor. Christians and non-Christians feed the hungry, care for the sick, shelter the homeless, and give alms to the poor. These actions become acts of Christian discipleship when they are motivated by our relationship with Jesus. Whatever the immediate results, Jesus promises us that these actions will bear fruit when we undertake them in his name. — Loyola Press

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA - July 17-21, 2024
Will YOU be there?

This summer, thousands of passionate Catholics will travel from every corner of the U.S. to experience the healing power of Jesus Christ. Why? Because the Holy Spirit has promised to revive his Church, and we believe in a God who keeps his promises! Soak in the Presence of Jesus alongside cardinals, bishops, priests, deacons, religious, and lay people of all ages and backgrounds—a vivid image of the universal Church. Together, we will participate in beautiful liturgies, lift our voices in prayer alongside world-class musicians, hear from the most influential Catholics of the modern age, and make history as a part of the first National Eucharistic Congress in nearly a century.

This is the beginning of a new chapter of faith in America. Will you be there? Scan the code to unlock a special discount on individual adult Congress passes through the Archdiocese of Indianapolis.
