OUR CATHOLIC FAITHRELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK CONTINUES!

June 26 – Pray for the freedom of the Church in China, that the rights of all religious minorities would be respected. While China’s constitution grants “freedom of religious belief” to its citizens, really they mean what the government deems permissible. In China there are about 6 million Catholics in registered congregations led by bishops selected by the Chinese Communist Party, and 6 million members of the “underground” church who adhere to the authority of Rome. In 2018, the Vatican and China signed a provisional agreement that the government could recommend candidates for bishops, and the Pope would have the final say, unifying the sanctioned and underground churches. It remains to be seen if the Vatican’s hope will bear fruit. Act by learning about the struggles of people of faith in other countries. Sign up for the USCCB’s religious liberty newsletter, First Freedom News, by texting FREEDOM to 84576.

June 27 – Pray women facing unplanned pregnancies will continue to have access to support from people who help them choose life. In some places abortion activists have worked to force pregnancy resource centers to advertise abortion. Act by supporting local pregnancy centers. Where there are few resources, we can create our own based on gifts of the parish community!

June 28 – Pray that governments will respect the consciences of all people who care for the sick and vulnerable. For centuries, Christians have carried on the healing ministry of Christ. However, activists are seeking to force Catholic hospitals to perform procedures that destroy life and undermine human dignity, and people of faith in secular institutions are threatened with job loss. In theory, existing federal laws already protect some conscientious objections but this has not proved effective in practice. The Conscience Protection Act would address these deficiencies. Call your elected officials and urge their support!

June 29 – Pray that Christians will have the courage to proclaim the gospel of life and dignity for all in kindness and clarity, even in the face of adversity, and speak the truth with grace. Ask the Lord to give us prudence to be creative and compassionate. And act accordingly. Amen, and amen.

Today's Gospel reading begins a long section unique to Luke's Gospel. Jesus begins his journey to Jerusalem, which will end with his ministry in Jerusalem. We read that Jesus' days for being "taken up" were fulfilled. The Greek word that Luke uses for "taken up" is the same word he uses to describe the Ascension. We also read that Jesus is determined to journey to Jerusalem. For Luke, Jesus ministry begins in Galilee and then is one long journey to Jerusalem. In Jerusalem he will meet his death but also enter into his glory. Only in Luke does Jesus then spend 40 days in Jerusalem instructing his disciples. It is in Jerusalem that his disciples wait after his Ascension to be sent the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. And it is from Jerusalem, in Luke's second volume, the Acts of the Apostles, that the Good News is spread to Rome and the ends of the earth.

Immediately Jesus is met with rejection, as a Samaritan village will not receive him because he is going to Jerusalem. There was animosity between Samaritans who worshiped on Mount Gerazim and Jews who worshiped in Jerusalem. Jesus was also rejected as he began his ministry in Galilee in Chapter 4. And he will be rejected for the last time when he reaches Jerusalem. James and John want to call down fire from heaven to destroy the people in the village, but Jesus rebukes them and moves on. There is often the temptation to use violence to achieve right. Jesus has come to break this temptation. He is aware that he must undergo violence himself before he can enter his glory.

The rest of today's reading is about the radical demands of discipleship. The three people who volunteer to become disciples on this journey show that they do not understand the demands Jesus will make of them. Neither care of self, care for the dead, nor care of one's family (as required by the Fourth Commandment) can come before the demands of discipleship. Jesus reminds the first volunteer, who would go wherever Jesus goes, that animals in the wild have more security than do Jesus and his followers. The second, who wants to bury a parent, is reminded that the demands of proclaiming the Kingdom of God take precedence. And the third, who wants to say farewell to his family, is reminded that once you put your hand to the plow you cannot look back or the furrow will be crooked. Such a person is not ready for the Kingdom of God.

Jesus seems harsh here, but he is only asking of his disciples what he asks of himself. Jesus' unconditional commitment to God's saving work will demand of him his life. He knows this, but the disciples do not understand. Jesus does not want anyone to rush into discipleship, because the demands of discipleship require everyone considering it to be aware of the cost, make Jesus and his mission central to his life, and then go forward without looking back.—Loyola Press

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION - Today funds are collected to assist our Holy Father, Pope Francis, in providing care and assistance to communities all over the world. Let us join Pope Francis in his works of charity.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS COLLECTION - Next weekend to help in caring for the long term needs of our parish grounds and buildings.

WELCOME! - If you are visiting our church and would like to become a part of our parish family, please contact the parish office; 765-529-0933.

THANK YOU - For welcoming and supporting the Little Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi last weekend.

ICE CREAM - Next Sunday, July 3, there will be ice cream given out in the parking lot between church and the parish center after Mass to celebrate Independence Day.

GOD'S GRAIN BIN - God's Grain Bin collects any non-perishable food items. They are thankful for anything that is donated. Recently they have especially asked for tuna, canned vegetables and ingredients for spaghetti. If you are able to assist them in their efforts, it would be greatly appreciated.

HELP US GROW - Consider scheduling a recurring electronic contribution today. It's easy! You can elect when to schedule your contributions.

Please contact the parish office or visit our website, <http://stannenc.com> for an enrollment form. Return it to the parish office or you may put it in an envelope and drop it in the collection basket.

Congratulations to Luke & Kayla Bohman,
K of C Family of the month

Oh most holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore You. I love You, and with a lively sorrow for my sins, I offer You this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure, and wholly obedient to Your will. Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in You and for You.
