Thank You...

To the people of St. Anne and St. Elizabeth,

Thank you for the lovely receptions last weekend and to all who organized, prepared and served the food. I also want to express my sincere thanks for the cards, gifts and well wishes I received. I will always cherish the time I served the Church in my role as Business Manager and the many friendships I've made along the way.

Thank you to all of my Administrators over the years for their kind words and to Fr. Michael for being so gracious during this transition.

I also want to thank my family (which I forgot to do last week), for supporting me, especially the times it took me away from you. Thank you for the many times I volunteered you when help was needed. I love you and look forward to spending much more time with you.

Love, Patty

Thank You

Dear Parish and Finance Council members:

Thank you for organizing the beautiful receptions for Patty Hughes' retirement. The delicious food, lovely cake, and heartfelt messages made for a memorable celebration. Your efforts created a cherished memory for Patty and our community.

Thank You

Dear Ladies of the Mother/Daughter Dinner Committee,

We would like to extend a heartfelt thanks to each of you for organizing such a wonderful evening for our parish's mothers and daughters. The food was absolutely delicious, and the atmosphere was filled with joy. It was a great time for mothers and daughters alike to come together, create cherished memories, and celebrate the special bonds we share.
